

KITCHENAID ANNOUNCES INDIA'S FIRST PROBAKER

Concludes Month Long Quest with a Grand Finale and Celebrity Chef Peachy Juban

NEW DELHI, April, 2015: KitchenAid, the world's premium Kitchen Appliances manufacturer concluded its grand finale for the quest of India's first ProBaker in New Delhi. The grand finale took place after a week long cake decoration training designed for top 8 contestants from Mumbai, Bangalore, Kolkata and New Delhi.

The week long cake decoration training with Chef Peachy Juban consisted of an introduction to Cake Decorating along with teaching of artistic techniques like Fondant, Icing, Layering etc. Peachy Juban is one of the most dynamic and sought after cake designers in the world. While her baking studio Shortcrust is a mecca of sorts for wedding cakes in Phillipines, her signature creations such as the lantern cakes have set the gold standard in cake decoration worldwide.

After the exciting week- long training, contestants participated in a special themed finale 'Haute Couture', wherein each participant drew inspiration from popular Indian fashion designers whose design style served to inspire their finale pieces. A sketch showing the cake design and its correlation to the design inspiration was presented by the competitor along with their cake. Top designers like Sabyasachi, Gauri & Nainika, Abu Jani & Sandeep Khosla, Anjalee and Arjun Kapoor, Anamika Khanna, Manish Arora, Rohit Bal and JJ Valaya served as design muse to contestants. The participants were judged on originality, artistry, overall aesthetic appeal, technique, execution and craftsmanship.

Home bakers Simmi Sareen, Shruti Muzumdar from Mumbai and Madhuri Aggarwal, Reena Mendonsa and Diya Jojan from Bangalore, Nupur Kanudia, Agrima Mundra and from New Delhi and Urvashi Shivnani from Kolkata participated in the grand finale and week long training which was held at the world renowned Academy of Pastry Arts, India. The jury consisted of Chef Peachy Juban, Chef Avijit Ghosh, Corporate Pastry Chef, The Leela Palaces, Hotels and Resorts and Thomas Blanchard, Corporate Chef for Dabon International.

The winner for the KitchenAid ProBaker is Nupur Kanudia from Gurgaon, Home Baker and mother of two children. She started her home bakery business for friends and family called Mocha Mania. She operates from home and has no professional training, but her creativity led her to a nationwide victory. Her finale three tier wedding cake was inspired by designer Rohit Bal's Mughal Collection.
